

REVIVAL TEAM TAKES CHARGE OF METHODIST MEETING

Callis-Grenfel Company Takes Charge
Of Special Evangelistic Services at Third Street Church.

The revival at the Third Street M. E. church is on in earnest. With the coming of the Callis-Grenfel company the interest is on with increased zeal. Tuesday night was a mighty stormy night to go to church but a large crowd came through the drenching rain. And they were well repaid for coming. When the song service began Prof. Grenfel faced a choir of thirty-six voices, accompanied by violin, piano, saxophone and cornet, also by flute and piccolo, as Prof. Grenfel is an artist with either instrument. Prof. Grenfel is a Welshman. And these people are noted for being good singers. He is a skillful chorus director. With so many singers much may be expected in the way of fine music during the revival. As a special feature a beautiful instrumental trio was played by Mrs. Callis, violinist, Prof. Grenfel, flute, and Miss Richardson at the piano. Mrs. Callis is very fine with the violin. This instrument is a great addition to the music.

Evangelist Callis for his introductory sermon preached on the general subject of revivals. His preaching is done with a fluency and ease that makes listening to him a real pleasure. He surely made a good impression for the first service.

Services will be held each evening beginning at 7 o'clock. There will be no day services this week. Prof. Grenfel desires to meet all young people over twelve at the church at 7 o'clock. He has something extra in store for them.

FIRST MORTGAGES.

We offer First Mortgage investments of the highest character. In every loan offered, the soundness of value, title to property and standing of the borrower have been thoroughly investigated and approved by the officers and attorneys of this bank before being accepted as our own investments.

These investments are offered to the public with our highest recommendation. They bear interest at the rate of six per cent. This rate, considering the high type and large margin of security in these loans, is unusually attractive.

Investment in these mortgage loans helps finance the community, and the security is right here at home where you can make personal investigation if you want to.

FINED HEAVILY FOR HAVING LIQUOR.

John Morton, colored, whose still and moonshine liquor was captured by officers Tuesday, was fined $100 and given a jail sentence of 30 days by Judge Fred W. Bauer Tuesday afternoon. He was held for the grand jury on the charge of having a moonshine still. Because of Morton's being so busy on the farm at this time, he executed bond and will serve his jail sentence later in the season.

Fireman James Whitaker continues to improve very satisfactory after his operation for appendicitis.

FORMER LOCAL EDITOR DIED TUESDAY MORNING

Colonel H. J. B. Marshall, Former Editor of the Mason County Journal Died Tuesday Morning.

Mr. Marshall was 71 years of age. He is survived by his wife, his daughter and two grandchildren as well as many more distant relatives and friends.

Mr. Marshall with Mr. H. V. Morris established the old Mason County Journal and this newspaper was edited for some time by the deceased. He was a very brilliant gentleman of the old school type and was one of the best penmen in Kentucky. He was a member of the famous Kentucky Marshall family, pioneers and leaders in this state.

"THE WISE KID" IS A WICKED FLAPPER.

In "The Wise Kid" Gladys Walton plays the part of a little New York flapper and the way she flaps the boys will cause a "riot." She is a wicked flapper too but just how wise? Not so very—as all these flappers find out in time. But we must admit that Gladys Walton is just about the sweetest little flapper on the screen. She is supported by human David Butler and an all-star Universal cast. It is directed by Tod Browning. Pastime Thursday.

CHARGED WITH ANGLE- COCKING FREIGHT TRAIN.

Roscoe Duncan and William Duncan, of Mt. Olivet, and Bernard Hamilton, of Brooksville, were delivered to local officers Tuesday evening by the crew of a C. & O. freight train, who charged the men with attempting to angle-cock and wreck the train. The men will be held for Bracken county authorities as the alleged offense is said to have been committed in Bracken county.

GRANTED MARRIAGE LICENSE.

Marriage license was granted in the Mason County Court Tuesday afternoon to Samuel Phillips, aged 29, and Miss Mary Mitchell, aged 21, both of Maysville.

HEAVY FINE AND JAIL SENTENCE FOR SO. RIPLEY 'SHINER

Linville Eddie, Who Operated Moonshine Outfit on Shanty Boat Is Fined $300 and given 20 Day
Jail Sentence.

Linville Eddie, whose moonshine outfit, which had been operated on a shanty boat near South Ripley, was taken several months ago by a Sheriff's posse, was found guilty of operating a moonshine still in Circuit Court. His fine was placed at $300 and he was given a twenty day jail sentence.

Despite the fact that the equipment was found on Eddie's boat and that Eddie made an attempt to escape from the boat, he entered a plea of not guilty and his case went to a jury.

Omar Robinson, colored, indicted on a violation of the prohibition law, was found not guilty by a jury.

The case against George Dale, indicted on a charge of selling liquor to Charley Rye, resulted in a hung jury. It is understood that the jury stood 9 for acquittal and 3 for conviction.

All of the evidence in the case of the Commonwealth vs. William Edgar, indicted for assault and battery in connection with an assault upon former Special Officer John Hornback, was heard Wednesday afternoon. The court will instruct the jury and give them the case the first thing Thursday morning.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH WHEN HOME IS DESTROYED

Residence Near Lebanon Junction Is Scene of Midnight Tragedy—Three Are Burned To Death.

Shepherdsville, Ky., March 28.—Three persons were burned to death late tonight when fire destroyed the home of James Newman, farmer, three miles west of Lebanon Junction. The dead are: Mrs. James Newman, Mrs. Ada Newman, 85 years old, mother of Mr. Newman, and Paul Spink, a young grandson. All were on the second floor.

Another grandson escaped death, it was reported.

The cause of the fire has not been determined. The house, a two-story frame structure, was said to have been gutted in flames before nearest neighbors were awakened. The building was falling in before aid arrived.

It has not been learned whether Mr. Newman was at home. It is supposed that all means of escape were cut off from the victims.

Mr. Newman has owned the farm near Salt River for several years. His two grandsons, as well as his mother, made their home with him.

"TEX" RICARD IS CLEARED BY JURY

New York.—March 29.—"Leave New York? No, sir! Right here I stay. They tried to get me here and I'll get them in their own yard."

Pressed to be more definite than "they," Tex Rickard, "out of the bad mess" that has had him worried for months, added:

"They know who I mean, and that's all for the present."

"Framing and blackmailing are all a part of the big game, I guess, but there are no rules that prevent you from striking back."

Rickard said hitting pay dirt in Alaska and counting $700,000 winnings in four years didn't compare with the thrill that was his when the jury said he was not guilty of improper relations with a 15-year-old girl.

ATTEMPT MADE TO ASSASSINATE "PUSSYFOOT."

Green Bay, Wis., March 29.—William E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson, anti-liquor crusader, was guarded today following an attempt to bomb a meeting he was to address.

The bomb was thrown into the Union Congregational Church as an audience waited for Johnson to appear last night.

F. C. Walker saw smoke curling from the infernal machine and threw it out a door. The bomb proved a "dud."

Johnson later addressed the meeting.

VISITATION DAY IN SUNDAY SCHOOL NEXT SUNDAY

Visitors at All Sunday Schools Next Sunday to Boost Special Attendance Campaign.

Next Sunday will be "Visitation" day for Kentucky Sunday schools. This day was observed for the first time in Mason county last April. So well did the Sunday school enjoy entertaining a visitor with his message that the association is making ready to send visitors out to visit every school next Sunday.

Mr. Elmer T. Kirk, superintendent of administration, has this work in hand. He will meet his "visitors" Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Third Street M. E. church for a short conference preparatory to sending them forth next Sunday. Superintendents are requested to receive their visitors and give them just a few minutes during the opening or closing service to give their message.

The object of this visitation is to boost the Sunday schools; advertise Go-To-Sunday-School-Day, May 7; the district conventions, May 21st and the county convention, June 6th and 7th. Let every school make a special effort to have out their full attendance to greet the visitors.

HARDING REGRETS OVERTHROW OF FIRST PROPOSED BUDGET

Supporters of Increase in Rivers and Harbors Apportionment Certain
the Big Increase Made Will Stand.

Washington, March 28.—Disappointment was evident at the White House today over the action of the House members yesterday in throwing overboard the budget program by adding $15,000,000 to the appropriation for Rivers and Harbors.

President Warren G. Harding let it be known today that he firmly believes in the budget and thinks that it ought to be given a fair trial.

The decisive victory by the advocates of improved waterways was construed today by leaders of the river and agricultural blocks as "a protest against the present excessive railroad freight and passenger rates."

Members of Kentucky's Congressional delegation, who fought for the adoption of the amendment increasing the appropriation from $27,635,260 to $42,815,661, not only hold this view but contend that the waterways in the Ohio River district can be developed into a "great transportation artery, from which great benefits would result."

There is every indication that a roll call vote on the amendment will be demanded tomorrow by opponents, but the amendment advocates are confident that the overwhelming vote will stand.

AMENDED STATE DRY ACT WILL BE PRINTED AT ONCE.

Frankfort, Ky., March 28.—Copies of the Prohibition Enforcement Act, as amended at the 1922 session, will be issued by Fred A. Vaughan, Secretary of State, as soon as they can be printed. He will send a copy to every office of the Commonwealth, entitled to copies of the Acts of the General Assembly, and surplus copies will be on sale at $1 each.

He is doing this because it is already in force and he anticipates a great, immediate demand for information about the law.

It gives inferior courts jurisdiction, imposed a bond of $1,000 on everyone convicted under it and provided for extraordinary fees for arrests and convictions.

Mrs. Amy Taylor, of Jacksonville, Fla., arrived Sunday to spend a few months with her sister, Mrs. Lee Ryder, of East Second street.

BOOSTER ROAD MEETING AT ABERDEEN SUCCESSFUL

The meeting at Aberdeen Tuesday evening in the interest of the Atlantic and Pacific Highway Association was a great success in every respect. Quite a number of Maysville boosters attended the meeting.

Booster addresses were made by quite a number of leaders in the drive and a number of new members to the Atlantic & Pacific Highway Association were secured. The Horseshoe Band furnished music.

The people of Aberdeen and vicinity are very enthusiastic over the proposed new cross-continental highway which is routed to pass directly through the town of Aberdeen.

TRIAL OF MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE AGAINST SHEA SET FOR FRIDAY

Young Man Charged With Slaying Lee
Carr at Mayslick Dance To Be Given Trial in Circuit Court Friday.

The only manslaughter case on the local docket will be tried on next Friday. Agreement to this effect has been reached by attorneys for the defense and the prosecution in the case against Clarence Shea, indicted for manslaughter.

It will be remembered that on the night of Thursday, October 27th, Lee Carr, manager of a local cream receiving station, was shot at a dance given at Mayslick. The young man was brought to Maysville and he died from the wound at Hayswood Hospital on the following day without making a statement as to the trouble.

Who fired the fatal shot was not known but on the day following Carr's death, Clarence Shea, of Ellisville, Nicholas county, surrendered himself to the sheriff of Nicholas county and came to Maysville where he admitted that he fired the shot which caused Carr's death. He claimed self-defense.

At the following session of the grand jury an indictment was returned and the case will be given its first complete hearing in Circuit Court Friday. Young Shea, who bears a splendid reputation in his home country, is on bond.

NOTICE TO BOND HOLDERS.

There has been deposited with the State National Bank funds to pay the outstanding bonds against the Knights of Pythias due April 1st. Interest will stop on that date.

THE DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER

THE LEDGER PUBLISHING COMPANY

CLARENCE MATHEWS Editor and Manager

Entered at the Postoffice, Maysville, Ky, as Second Class Mail Matter

RATES IN ADVANCE: By Carrier or Mail, $3 per year; $1.75, Six Months; 40 Cents per Month.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

WHAT WADSWORTH FORESAW

It is announced that a delegation representing the Collins-Griffith party in Ireland is on the way to this country to secure support of Americans of Irish blood, and that another delegation representing the De Valera faction is in hot pursuit with a view to securing the same backing for the De Valerians. The two groups of delegates will doubtless make it interesting in this country as they argue their claims before their chosen forum. Officially the United States will, of course, remain neutral, but undoubtedly a number of members of Congress will be apprised by mail, by telegram, and by personal visits of what is going on. It is but natural that each side in the Irish dispute should seek support wherever it may be found, but it is hardly to be expected that either side will demand such support as an expression of our foreign policy.

Nevertheless, the occasion suggests vividly what would have happened had this country been dragged into the league of nations, a situation the possibilities of which were ably depicted by Senator James Wadsworth, Jr., of New York, in his attack on the Wilson league covenant. A dispute might have arisen in Poland, or in Italy, or in a number of other countries having a large representation in the United States, and immediately the dispute would have extended to the representatives in this country and would have been carried by them to Congress, or to the Executive, and all the pressure of votes and the promises of campaign funds would have been brought to bear to secure American support of the one side or the other. Or, again, two countries each having a large representation here, would quarrel over a boundary line—Austria and Italy, for example—and again the power of the United States would be invoked to bring pressure to bear on the league to decide the matter in favor of this or that party.

The result would have been unceasing turmoil in our own body politic because the politics of Europe and the rest of the world had been transfused into the political veins of the United States. Official action would not have been hoped for, it would have been demanded, and as a member of the league we could not have evaded commitment on the score of neutrality. That is one of the many things we escaped by refusing to join the league.

CREDIT IS DUE THEM

Our very efficient police department is entitled to our heartiest congratulations. They have been accomplishing things and when one accomplishes, he is entitled to be congratulated.

When the present police department was chosen, there were many who doubted and feared but all doubts and fears have now been dispelled. Instead of doubt and fear, there is confidence and certainty. Every member of the department has proven himself a very efficient officer.

Several important cases have been run down and Maysville is being rid of much of its moonshining and bootlegging. The wave of petty thievery seems to have been stopped and if the series of assaults on couples in the L. & N. roundhouse district has not been stopped, we can rest assured that it will be immediately.

Chief of Police James Mackey and the members of his new force have, within a very short time, adapted themselves to their jobs and are doing the job well. So long as they perform their duties, as they are now performing them, they are entitled to the appreciation of the public, and shall receive the Public Ledger's portion.

THE BETTER WAY

Suppose that Warren G. Harding ostentatiously had attended the Disarmament Conference as chairman of the American delegation and had shown magisterial indifference to the opinions of his colleagues. Suppose that he had appointed as Secretary of State not a national figure of great character and experience, but a man of clerical efficiency in international law, and had then forgot even his clerical efficiency. Suppose that, instead of appointing the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the leader of the minority as members of the American delegation, he had ignored the Senate altogether and had then told the Senators to ratify the proposed treaty without dotting an "i" or crossing an "t."

A change of five votes would have rejected the Four-Power pact. A change of six votes would have ratified the Peace treaty and the League of Nations pact, without reservations. Mr. Harding recognized the constitutional power of the Senate, its "advice and consent" in the making of treaties. Mr. Wilson did not.

Which was the greater statesmanship? "By their fruits shall ye know them."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Aberden has a real "Medicine Show" this week. How many remember the old medicine shows which visited Maysville years ago? Do you remember the Indians in the bottoms with their Modock Oil and Katonka? Are there any pictures of little Sultan in Maysville now? How many remember the outfit advertising Hamlin's Wizard Oil?

City Council is to be congratulated upon the election of the new Board of Tax Supervisors. This board is composed of high class gentlemen, well posted on city property values. Their experience last year makes them most valuable this year both to the city and the taxpayer.

Maysville is as much interested in the Atlantic & Pacific highway as our Ohio neighbors and we should stand at their backs and help them put the project across. Everyone interested should join the A. & P. Highway Association.

Despite the general financial condition and the launching of the tobacco pool, local banks are in splendid condition, according to their statements published last week.

The seizure of a quantity of home brew by the police a few days ago caused much uneasiness at more than one family fireside.

DILLHOEFER DIED WITH SMILE ON HIS LIPS, WANTING TO PLAY
Former Ohio Statist Leaguer Died
Brave With a Great Desire to
"Swat One With the Bases Full."

It takes courage to laugh at death. Such a man was William "Pickles" Dillhoefer, the young Cleveland boy who caught for the St. Louis Cards, and whose death a few weeks ago cast a pall of grief over the Mound City, where he was highly esteemed both as a man and athlete, writes Joe Williams in the Cleveland Press.

I recently heard the story of how "Pickles" died from some of his teammates who were near when the final summons came.

Until the last hour of his conscious life the young man resolutely refused to concede defeat.

Branch Rickey, manager of the club, had promised Dillhoefer that he would let him catch the opening game of the season if he got well. He had never been more than second catcher with the Cards, but he was as smart as a steel trap. Always he coached at third base from which point of vantage he diagnosed with more than average success the workings of the enemy defense.

Rickey's promise to use him behind the bat in the opening game gave him greater joy than any one other development in his baseball career.

And even as the cold shadow of death crept over him he mumbled, almost audibly, "I'll be in that opener."

Elite Confectionery

"... I'll be in that opener."
Three days before he died Dr. William Englebach, sensing the inevitable told the young catcher he had lost the fight.

Dillhoefer waited until the physician had left the room and then motioned for his nurse to come to his bedside. "Did you hear what he said?" Dillhoefer asked. The nurse nodded. "Well, listen, we're going to cross him, and live."

The following day Rickey called to see him again. "Pickles" was very weak, and his breath came at troubled intervals. He smiled faintly as Rickey spoke to him. He could barely talk above a whisper.

"You know what I'd like to do right now, Rickey? I'd like to go out to that old ball lot and swat one with the bases full."

That's how young Dillhoefer disappeared into the shadows to grapple the eternal mystery; he went with a laugh on his lips and a challenging cry in his soul.

The proverbial "unloaded" pistol figured in a sad tragedy in a New York family last week. Grandpa Richard came home from work to find his six year old granddaughter, Emma, dressed as a gypsy to surprise him. As she jumped from behind the door he backed in mock alarm and to make the scene more exciting grabbed a pistol from the sideboard and pointed it at her. There was an explosion and the little girl fell. When the ambulance came Grandpa was sitting with the child in his arms and was in a dazed condition. The granddaughter was dead.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeannie Price

New York.—At last comes a foreign visitor who does not think our revelry has been killed by prohibition. He ought to be something of a connoisseur, too. Prince Mohamed Ali Ibrahim, nephew of Sultan Foud of Egypt spent several days here with us on his tour of the world, and as he is 22, rich and a sportsman, and seems to be making the trip into something like a scientific survey of the amusements of the globe, he may be accepted as an authority. And according to him New York has the fastest night life in the world—up to midnight. We do fall down on the matter of hours, he considers, and become pretty slow after that hour, when we might keep it up for several more. "New York has a gay night life than Paris while it lasts," he said, "and I like it better. Berlin is dead, Vienna is dead and gone and will never come back."

The successor to the artificial palm and the papier mache rubber plant has arrived. It is the wooden garden; the latest addendum to the nature beauties of a great city. Blossoming sticks, all painted in the proper colors, may be bought in judicious assortments of jonquils, hollyhocks, pansies and whatnot, and slipped neatly into a box of dirt for the window, or, if one lives sufficiently on the outskirts of our congestion, for the front porch or side yard. They are warranted not to fade—at least not until summer is well on the way, and they avoid all bother of the sprinkler and worry about the proper soil.

Mrs. Mabel Emma Field, who came here from Chicago when her spiritual control turned her efforts in the direction of sketching and guided her hand while she applied the pencil, has achieved even more than that through the help of her guardian spirit. She got her picture hung. The Independent Society of Artists declined the picture for its exhibition at the Waldorf because Mrs. Field's letter and check for ten dollars, was received later than the deadline set for contributions — and checks. But that didn't matter. The picture appeared securely tacked to the wall one morning although the watchman and everybody else swears there was not one moment when a human being could have entered and done that. Moreover there was a neatly typed card tacked above it explaining all about the Egyptian symbolism of the "impressionistic personality portrait of Miss Edith Bennett", and still more efficient, there in the card index of the exhibit was a card written in a strange hand recording the picture as having been received March 3. Mrs. Field insists upon complete ignorance of the matter just as everyone else insists it could not have been done. It's just spirits!

The established playwrights of the past twenty years must be dazed and the spirits of those dead appalled by the present theatrical season in New York. All the dramatic unities, all the rules of conception, construction, and interpretation have been thrown overboard with a fling which must have sent this to the bottom of the sea. Consider just a few of these shapeless, freaky plays: "The Fairy Ape," — nine scenes, soliloquies, long speeches, a gorilla for an actor, and something in all the dialogue called "expressionism." "The First Fifty Years" — seven scenes, stretching

Jno. T. Bramel, retired bookkeeper, 105 West Front street, Maysville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great advantage to me and I contribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was some years ago that I found I had kidney trouble and suffered severely with it. After a long course of Doan's Kidney Pills I became well and had no trouble for many years. Just recently I noticed my kidneys were again out of order and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble. I did not lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they have given me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful remedy." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)
On November 22, 1920, Mr. Bramel said: "I couldn't recommend a better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills after the benefit they were to me when I was about down and out with the worst form of kidney trouble. I gave a statement many years ago regarding the merit of this wonderful remedy. My cure has been a lasting one." Price 50 cents, at all dealers. We have insisted upon a stiff and limited form of playwrighting which is now suffering its reaction. It ought to be time now for the Theater Guild to produce Hamlet!

A festival of the Portuguese language was given the other evening at Columbia University, under the auspices of the Pan-American Students' League. His Excellency, Augusto Cochrane de Alencar, Brazilian Ambassador to the United States, and other officials from South America were present, and encouraged the efforts to promote the recognition of the Portuguese language in the United States as a factor of Pan-Americanism. It is important, of course, to our trade relations, but there are times when I am glad — if it means the passage of youth — that I am through going to school. So many things do come up that must be learned!

ABERDEEN'S MAN OF MYSTERY RECALLED IN INTERESTING STORY

Aberdeen Man Tells Interesting Story of "Cardy" Howell, Peculiar Old Citizen of Neighboring Town.

(By Will McCague Campbell in The Aberdeen Gretna Green.)
Away back in the deep dark dun vista of the past, during the 50s, 60s, 70s. There lived a man in Aberdeen that went by the name of "Cardy" Howell, who owned and operated a carding mill in the upper end of town on the property of Laurence Schlitz. The boys and girls of olden days can recall the many times they went to Mr. Howell's to buy yarn for their mothers to knit socks and stockings. You ver always met at the door by Cardy and no one was ever permitted to see on the inside of Cardy's cabin. Cardy Howell was a small man with sharp features and always wore a broad grinning black slouch hat and a pair of shoes about four times too large and turned up at the toes like sled runners. he had piercing gray eyes with shaggy eyebrows and he would pass you coming and going without any sign of recognition.
In the month of March, 1878, Mr. Howell was missed by the neighbors and Laurence Schlitz, Sr., went to his cabin and on finding it locked he suspected this something had happened to Cardy, he came down in town and told Mayor T. F. Hill, they went to the cabin and broke open the door, and found the dead body of Mr. Howell, who had died alone, without relative or friend to look after him in his last hour. Dr. Guthrie pronounced him as being dead several days when found.
In looking over the few things that Mr. Howell had in his cabin, there was found $2100 in Government bonds, that the coupons had never been clipped from. The bonds were found tied up in a bundle of rags in the cabin. In a short time after his death, Daniel Howell, his brother, came to Aberdeen and the bond swer given to him, Daniel cleared up the mystery of his brother. In his younger days he left his native country, Wales, on account of a love affair, the first and only girl he ever loved turned him down, and from that day until his death he was a woman hater. To the credit of him, it must be said that he was a man of God. He went to church on Sunday nights and always took a back seat and he never failed to contributed money to the church. Cardy's correct name was John Howell and he was a man who was possessed of a fine education.

Charlie Harding and Ben Campbell, were the only boys in Aberdeen who ever got a "glimpse" on the inside of the old "Carding Mill." They stole in one day when Cardy was away, and if he had caught them there would have been a funeral. His cabin was the most absurd, ugly and ridiculous in town, exhibiting a want of taste and invention. The mystery of "Cardy" would never have been learned had his brother Daniel not turned up. I am sure all of the old boys and girls will remember "Cardy" Howell the mystery man of Aberdeen in the long ago.

AMERICAN LEGION LAUNCHES DRIVE FOR EMPLOYMENT

Thirty Day Employment Drive Is Launched By the American Legion Posts Throughout the Nation.

Spurred on by the fact that many ex-service men are still jobless, the American Legion has launched a nationwide 30-day employment drive through its 11,000 posts. Employed veterans everywhere in the United States have volunteered to devote their spare time and money, as well as the use of their automobiles and buggies, for the big job-hunt, in behalf of their less fortunate comrades.

The President's Conference on Unemployment in Washington, has been asked to cooperate. All the backing it can give, together with the use of its machinery and organization, has been made available. Hanford MacNider, National Commander of the Legion, will direct the campaign from his headquarters in Indianapolis. "A Job for My Buddy" is the idea with which every employed veteran will work until April 20.

Arthur Woods, who heads the Emergency Committee of the Conference, telegraphed the following plan of campaign today from Washington:

"First, relieve distress. If there are men in want, take care of them.

"Next, make sure that a man who needs a job knows how to look for it. Is the local employment agency well run, and do the men use it? Hunt for jobs, and keep on hunting. It will surprise you how many will turn up if you work, and don't miss tricks. Don't wait—apply at every employment bureau, advertise, write personal letters make calls and get your friends to work for you. And there's a friend in need waiting for every job you nu-earth. Only yodn't go so far as to have some one else fired to make room for your men.

"Last, stir things up so as to create more jobs. Spring is here; it's the time to clean up, freshen up, paint up, dig up, spruce up generally. Everybody's doing it. The nation, your state, your town, companies, just people, yourself, do something that needs to be done; only do it now — don't wait. You'll get it done and you'll help some one in the doing who needs and deserves help."

In almost every neighborhood there are living witnesses of its wonderful effects. Therefore, if you doubt its value or power to help, ask your neighbor. In nine times out of ten she has been benefited by its use or knows someone who has. It will pay you to give this root and herb medicine a trial.

SIAMESE TWINS WILL DIE.

Chicago, March 29. — Rosa Blazek will today die with her Siamese twin sister, Josefa.

She discouraged physicians who suggested an operation to separate her from the dying Josefa might save her life. Rosa would not even permit an X-Ray examination to determine whether an operation could be performed.

"I would not continue on without Josefa if it were possible," said Rosa. "If death comes to her, I, too, must go."

Doctors had about given up hope today that either of the twins could recover.

SHAKER COLONY TRACT OF 4,000 ACRES IS SOLD.

The actual passing of the famous Shaker tract from Kentucky was marked yesterday when the Bland & Day Lumber Company, a Lewisburg corporation, purchased a 4,000-acre tract at South Union from the Society of Shakers.

The land lies in three counties, Logan, Warren and Simpson, and it is understood more than $200,000 was involved in the deal.

The Shakers at one time were numerous in Kentucky, having several prosperous colonies. They gradually left the state, however, some going into Indiana and Ohio, where colonies now flourish.

The colonies in Kentucky slowly diminished, and some years ago all their property was deeded to a Harrodsburg resident with the agreement that he should take care of the remaining Shakers as long as they survived.

The musical program that was to have been given Sunday afternoon by Mr. Donald E. Phillips and his musical organization, will be rendered Thursday evening at the Colored High School. Mr. Phillips is a musician of no mean training and the way he has improved those under him is wonderful. There will also be some special music rendered by the High School Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Beatrice Lewis. This glee club is doing some splendid singing and we want to hear them also.

Business meeting of Bethel Baptist church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock and it is hoped that all members be present.

BIG SURPRISE IS SPRUNG BY STATE IN ARBUCKLE TRIAL

Testimony of Sanatorium Secretary
In Third Trial of "Fatty" Arbuckle
Is Quite a Surprise to The Defense.

San Francisco, March 29. — The state late Tuesday rested its case in the third manslaughter trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle with testimony offered by Miss Virginia Briggs, a surprise witness. The defense immediately began its presentation of evidence by calling Adolph Juel, head of the police identification bureau.

Miss Briggs, who is secretary to Dr. Francis Wakefield, at whose sanatorium Miss Virginia Rappe died following a party in Arbuckle's hotel rooms, testified that Miss Rappe told her that "Arbuckle took me by the arm and threw me on the bed and put his weight on me; and after that I do not know what happened."

At the conclusion of Miss Briggs' testimony the defense moved that her statements be stricken out as hearsay. The motion was denied.

Miss Briggs explained that she had gone into Miss Rappe's room the day of her death. "She asked me about the amount of the hospital bill that would be due," said the witness.

"She said she didn't see why she should pay the bill, as Arbuckle was responsible for her being there. I told her that if Arbuckle or anyone else should pay the account after she left, the money paid by her would be returned. She replied that she was not going to leave, that she was going to die."

"Then I asked her why she thought she was going to die, and it was then that she told me of the details of the party."

30 Years.

There are "new styles" even in medicines. A new "fad" comes, is popular for a while, and then fades out of public view. A remedy that has stood the test for thirty years must have remarkable merit and cannot be called a "fad." Such is Gude's Pepto-Mangan, originated by Dr. A. Gude over a quarter century ago, which has helped many thousands of people back to good health by improving the blood.

Pepto-Mangan is an iron tonic. It contains iron in a special form easily absorbed by the system. It puts color into the lips and cheeks and improves the entire body by improving and enriching the blood. It is sold by druggists in both liquid and tablet form.

If you want to be well and strong and look fine and healthy, take Gude's Pepto-Mangan.—Advertisement.
